The Adventurous Mermaid

by Macy Morris

Crash! Crash! The waves were as big as the sky. Little mermaid Mya was playing....crash! She was gone. "Where was she, her family wondered?" Little Mya was on the hot sand! Mermaids hate the sand! Where was her family?

She had to find them. Her adventure starts here.

She swam, swam, and swam... Suddenly she saw a boat... BOOM, BOOM, BOOM, the cannons went. Mya saw horrible gross nasty pirates. All of them had huge black eye patches. The pirates were so busy with battling and surviving, they didn't even notice Mya. Suddenly three tails swam by. Could it be? Could it be her... it was her family!!! That night the family and Mya had a huge family party. Mya never, ever went outside without her family, except for when there's a storm.
