

MY OWN PLANET

BY CHRISTINA ADAMS

One day I was on a rocket ship.
Suddenly, I saw something sparkly in the air. It looked, sort of, to me like a planet with a bunch of candy on it.

So I zoomed over it and to my surprise, it was what I thought it was! I landed my rocketship and hopped off. I started eating all the candy!

There were two candy canes that looked like trees and there was a poster hanging from them. And this is what it said: You are entering Candy Land.

So I stopped eating all the candy.
But then, to my surprise, I saw it growing back. I thought that it was sort of cool and crazy at the same time.
Then, I noticed that it was getting late.
So I hopped back into my rocketship and Zoomed back home just in time for stories.

The End
